We find the Lafirmary building too small to accommodate all the applicants, whose wants might entitle them to become inmates. To 26 of such applicants we have given partial relief, at an average of 70 cents per week. These are mostly widows with small families. We have furnished the city poor with 170 loads of wood, averaging one half cord per load. The whole amount of wood distributed and used in the Infirmary is 200 cords, costing $450, and the amount of coal used is 3,400 bushels, costing $306. There are five milch cows. 38 hors. two $306 There are five milch cows, 38 hogs, two horses, one carriage, two wagons and harness—the property of the Infirmary.
